

Health Administration
Brooks College of Health

Master of Health
Administration (MHA)

Executive
Master of Health Administration

unf.edu/brooks/emha

OVERVIEW

Our EMHA program is a largely online and structured cohort program that allows students to meet their professional demands while conveniently earning their advanced degree so they can become executive leaders in the healthcare industry.

EMHA is a Primarily Online Program*

WHY CHOOSE UNF'S EMHA?

- ✓ Flexibility and convenience for working professionals
- ✓ Comprehensive and leading-edge curriculum
- ✓ Networking opportunities with industry leaders and faculty

CAREERS

Graduates from our program are equipped for high-level careers such as hospital administrators, healthcare executives, and policy analysts, enabling them to lead and innovate within the healthcare sector.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

HSA6512 Leadership: Org Beh/Health

HSA6179 Fin Man: Health Org

HSA6707 Research Meth: Health Man

HSA6396 Health Info Sys

HSA6187 HR in Health Org

HSA6386 Pop Health/Health Execs

HSA6158 Health Policy and Law

HSA6387 Quality/Patient Safety

HSA6436 Health Econ/Reimb

HSA6148 Strat Man/Marketing HC*

100% of direct instruction is online. However, we recommend onsite or Zoom networking events to enhance your experience.*

Our EMHA curriculum provides contextual and leading-edge concepts to provide you with the critical-thinking skill-sets and necessary competencies to succeed in complex and challenging business situations.

DUAL DEGREE OPTIONS

Two dual degrees are currently offered with the EMHA

- Master of Science Health Informatics (MSHI)
- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)

Courses are taken concurrently in each program, with some courses overlapping.

More information

unf.edu/brooks/emha

DEVELOPING YOUR EDUCATION
TO THE HIGHEST LEVEL

