

Health Administration
Brooks College of Health

Doctor of Health
Administration (DHA)

Health Administration

unf.edu/brooks/dha

OVERVIEW

The Doctor of Health Administration is an applied doctoral program focusing on global health leadership and advanced evidence-based management of healthcare facilities. It consists of 48 credit hours, combining 80% online coursework with 20% on-campus primarily weekend seminars.

DHA is a Primarily Online* Program

WHY CHOOSE UNF's DHA?

- ✓ Leadership and Career Advancement
- ✓ Networking and Expert Faculty
- ✓ Competency-Based Curriculum

CAREERS

Graduates from our program are equipped for high-level leadership roles in academic hospitals, healthcare institutions, senior-care organizations, public health agencies, and academia.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

- HSA7357 Organizational Behavior
- HSA7706 Research Methodologies
- HSA7333 Financial Management
- HSA7197 Planning for Health Information Systems
- HSA7156 Public Policy and Healthcare
- HSA7386 Population Health Management
- HSA7348 Managing Change & Negotiation
- HSA7385 Leadership Accountability for Quality & Patient Safety
- HSA7146 Strategic Vision and Planning in Healthcare
- HSA7367 Evidence-based Decision Making
- HSA7388 Advances in Leadership
- HSA7091 Scientific Writing for the Healthcare Professional
- HSA7911 Doctoral Project I
- HSA7912 Doctoral Project II

 Two courses per semester*

ADVANCED HEALTHCARE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Our DHA program integrates advanced global health leadership principles and evidence-based management strategies to equip you with the critical skills and competencies needed to excel in navigating complex healthcare environments and driving impactful change.

More information

unf.edu/brooks/dha

DEVELOPING YOUR EDUCATION TO THE HIGHEST LEVEL

